

Wyoming County Conservation District
Erosion and Sediment Pollution Control Program
Fee Schedule

Authority and applicability:

- A. The Wyoming County Conservation District (District) is delegated, under Chapter 102 of the Pennsylvania Code and the Clean Streams Law, the authority to administer the Erosion and Sediment Pollution Control Program in Wyoming County, on behalf of the Commonwealth.
- B. The District may charge fees for erosion and sediment pollution control plan reviews as authorized by Act 217, The Conservation District Law.
- C. The review fees shall apply to all plans submitted to the District for approval except as noted below.

Disturbed acres are defined as an area where a construction or other human activity has disturbed the surface of the land. These activities, as defined by Chapter 102, include, but are not limited to, clearing and grubbing, grading, embankments, land development, agricultural plowing or tilling, timber harvesting activities, road maintenance activities, mineral extraction, and the moving, depositing, stockpiling, or storing of soil, rock or earth materials.

Fee Exemptions:

The following are exempt from fees for plan reviews:

- A. Any state government entity unless otherwise negotiated by that entity and the District.
- B. Agricultural operations conducted in accordance with a soil conservation plan
- C. Timber harvesting and other forestry activities that do not require plan approval under Chapter 102 exempt.

The Wyoming County Conservation District reserves the right to waive or modify the review fee upon approval by its board of directors.

Fee Schedule:

- A. Fees are based on the total number lots and total number of disturbed acres for the life of the project.
- B. Applications for plan reviews will not be accepted without the appropriate fees included.
- C. Small projects utilizing the Small Project Erosion and Sedimentation Control Manual will fall under the review fee applicable to that program. Only one check with the appropriate fee Made out to the “Wyoming County Conservation District” is needed

As of 11/19/10

- D. Plan review fees will not be waived for those projects that also require a NPDES or ESCP administrative filing fee. For projects that require three fees, the applicant is required to submit three separate checks. (The plan review fee check should be made out to the “Wyoming County Conservation District”, the administrative filing fee check should be made payable to the “Wyoming County Conservation District Clean Water Fund”, and the Disturbed Acreage Filing Fee should be made out to the “Commonwealth of Pennsylvania Clean Water Fund.”)
- E. All fees are non-refundable upon the District’s initiation of the plan review.

- A. If the permit application is administratively incomplete, the Conservation District will retain the administrative processing fee, and a new administrative filing fee will need to be submitted upon application resubmittal.
- B. The fee submitted will cover the initial review plus one review of submitted material in response to the first technical deficiency letter. Further reviews if necessary will be charged 50% of the original fee for each resubmission. In cases where revisions are necessary due to other government agency requirements, no additional fees will be charged. Fees will apply whether plans are submitted voluntarily or by state or municipal requirement for adequacy determination.
- C. Applications containing major technical errors or deficiencies will not be reviewed by the district. Rather, they will be returned with a request that the applicant take more care in the preparation of the application and a complete new set of fees will apply.
- D. Any project where the plan is no longer applicable due to changes in either the plan or site conditions will require the submittal of a new plan. The district will assess the appropriate review fee.
- E. If final site stabilization has not been completed within 90 days of the project completion or 1 year from the date of the plan approval, the District reserves the right to require the submittal of a new plan and assess the appropriate fee.
- F. If the Disturbed acreage increases during the review phase of any general or individual permits, a fee of $100 per disturbed acres, corresponding to that increase in acreage, will be assessed for the Disturbed Acreage Filing Fee. As per state guidelines, no refunds will be made if the disturbed area is decreased during the review.
